SELECTION GUIDELINES NOTIFICATION

For the Post of Junior Resident (Non Academic)

This is for information of all concerned that the selection of Junior Resident (Non Academic) for AGMC & GBPH, IGMH and ABVRCC will be done strictly on merit basis through written examination (MCQ based) to be held on 20.09.2022 at AGMC. In the event of obtaining same marks in the written examination by two or more candidates in any category the merit position will be decided as per the under-mentioned guidelines :

1. Average percentage of marks secured in MBBS / BDS examination (in all the professional examination). Two percentage (2%) of marks will be deducted from the average percentage of marks secured in MBBS/BDS for each additional attempt taken to pass the MBBS/BDS examination.
2. Even if after the above exercise two or more candidates fall in the same merit position, Date of Birth of the concerned candidates will be considered. Candidate born earlier will be placed in higher merit position.
3. If, in spite of the above guidelines two or more candidates fall in the same merit position, their merit position will be decided as per the alphabetical order of their name.
